

The International Journal of
APPLIED
 ENGINEERING
 EDUCATION

Editor-in-Chief: Michael Wald
*Hamburg Educational Partnership
 Germany*

Contents

M. S. Wald	81	Editorial
S. Ranatunga and N. Idrus	82-85	Engineering the Skill for Rural Development in Papua New Guinea
M. A. Muspratt and R. M. Robinson	86-96	Continuing Education for Engineers in Australia
R. Weiß	97-102	Costs and Structures of In-plant Further and Continuing Training in the Federal Republic of Germany
K. A. Tubman	103-105	Student Performance on an 'Engineering with French or German' Degree Course
R. H. Barnard	106-110	An Integrated Aerospace Engineering Degree
A. K. M. Abdul Haq, F. A. Burney, I. H. Al-Madhoun and S. Huq	111-119	Achievement of Engineering Students in their Specialization Fundamentals — An Evaluation
C. Y. Liu	120-124	A Compact Mini Smoke Wind Tunnel
A. J. Ghajar and Y. H. Zuriga	125-134	Microcomputer-Assisted Heat Transfer Measurement/Analysis in a Circular Tube
H. Shahnasser and W. Kohnen	135-139	A Practical Approach to Introduce Computer Aided Design to Help Teach Electromagnetics
K. Jambunathan, F. Shemirani and B. L. Button	140-150	FESTAL, a Finite Element Scheme for Thermal Analysis
A. Micarelli, F. Mungo and F. S. Nucci	151-157	Applied Engineering Education using Artificial Intelligence Techniques
J. T. Sommerfeld	158-160	Communication: Trends in Research Rankings of American Chemical Engineering Schools
J. R. Kadambi, A. E. Hribar, P. Cooper, S. Gopalakrishnan, and G. S. Jakubowski	161-166	Discussion Forum: Engineering Education Requirements for the Pump Industry Academic and Industrial Views

INDEXED/ABSTRACTED IN: *BIOSIS Database, Education Tech. Abst.,
 INSPEC Database, International Civil Engng. Abs., PASCAL—CNRS Database*

ISSN 0742-0269
 IJAEEX 7(1) 511-680 (1991)

TEMPUS Publications

Published with the support of Pergamon Press